The Abuser The Victim

The Angel is Summoned to conjoin ‘a willing victim’ to its ‘worthy abuser’.
If You receive this and You are not the original sender, and the mark is to the Left, You’re destined to be the victim. If it’s to the right, You’re destined to be the abuser.

To acknowledge the call, You must leave Your mark and return it to its sender.
To make the call, You too must leave Your mark and make Yourself available to receive it.

Any treachery – any abuse of the Angel – will be avenged.

The recepient may reject the call by tearing the letter apart and return it as such.
Failure to respond will be measured as Guilt.
Entrapment too will be measured as Guilt.

The Mark: A personal Alias; Real or Imaginary, Specific or Ambiguous.

THIS TOME is FOR THE CONDEMNED marked in both FLESH and SPIRIT

as givings into The DARK

AND THOSE TO BE

handed out to You – as a Gift – by someone who wants You to join them in a communion of the Night.

AN ANGEL IS SENT along with this GIFT to set THE MARK OF CONDEMNATION upon a Victim and link it to a Master; To conjoin them in a union of Darkness. And if what it finds is unjust, it will come back to who sent it to collect upon the deed.

I, Nicole Christina Sonnberger, produce this Document in full posession of my Mental Faculties; But not entirely of my own volition. However, what forces drive me to do this can be summed up as internal pressures; Though more so has my own personal journey intersected with this at first as a Hypothetical. And since the criteria were met for the Hypothetical to be exalted into higher Factuality – I now feel obligated to make it available for further study; Which however also comes with a more appropriate and updated getup. In as far as this does not come at my own volition; The first part to it is that I just find myself compelled into this state which comes as a reckoning from the now so implied factualities hereof.

Though the exact details evade me now, we can in general speak of an "incident" during which I was asked to "acknowledge" a given presence – at first recognized by an idea that soon developed into the concept of an angel. For me to be able to trust this, I would require a visitation as implied within the Text; And as it promptly occurred – and remained until I had accepted it – there was no rational room to doubt it. I did however not find myself in any capacity to engage with it; And an awakening connection to one critical relationship of mine opened the door to a deeper understanding of the herein established conditions. It may very well have been a critical part moving forward.

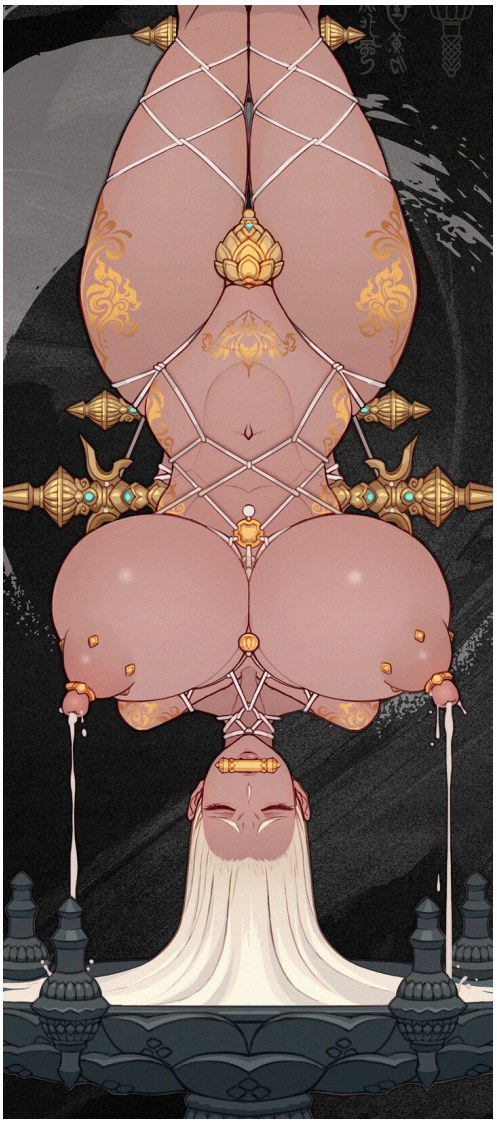
Although nothing is made official; So – this is a preliminary 'second draft' and not yet properly 'official; So far, the value of this Document is as follows:

As Divine Justice and Graces permit it, this Document "gates" an opportunity for everyone, free of any limitation, to call upon an Angel. This Angel os 'ordained' (ordinanced?) … 'granted' … "given" from God as a gift; But acts in behalf of Netherese Sensitivities. So, it is NOT a 'Netherese Angel' – but a 'Divine Angel' 'in Service of Netherese Sensitivities' – and as such it is acknowledged in the Netherese Pantheon; And as such it is, in fact, a Netherese Angel. It comes as a Gift; Formally from God unto myself; Virtually from Him unto us as a Seed untowards Netherese Culture. One might call it the Testament of a "new new" or "hidden old" covenant – which, though as lost to time, is now alive within me.

Pragmatically speaking, the first function of the Angel is to be a Witness. Virtually speaking it is sent out by an Abuser to collect upon a Victim; To behold whether or not the targeted Victim is in deed worthy of Entrapment. What I cannot testify to is its use to sever a relationship by 'daring' the implied other to "sign the contract" or release the sender. Either way the Angel will stand Witness. The sender is to make sure to fashion the contract after the relationship that the individual wants to sever. Functionally, as in my case (somehow), it can also be initiated by the Victim; Which slightly changes the formality but functionally it remains the same. Although the weight of emphasis and burden is put onto the Victim, the Relationship itself is still measured as between equals. Equality however is measured how much the Angel asks of the individuals, or how deeply it supports certain positions; Not in terms of rank or dignity or rights. Matter of Fact: The Angel is to see to it, that the Victim finds themselves stripped of such rights. And the force that it requires to re-enforce this understanding translates into the obsession of the Abuser to pursue that goal. The hold of the Angel is however not explicitly absolute or irreversible. The only thing absolute and irreversible about its invocation – though I cannot truly confirm it at this point – is that there will be consequences for both; Should the contract be validated (→ marked by both sides).
Furthermore – although it is practically just a hush of wind at this point – this contract can be exalted (→ made more permanent and demanding); I however don't think that we have the ordinances therefore at this point.

The second function of the Angel reads from the previous paragraph; And it is to be an enforcer. What I can testify to, is well described in this segment 'The Mark of Condemnation', namely in form of the Harness.

THE MARK OF CONDEMNATION



The ANGEL will come and carry a HARNESS for your SOUL. If You EMBRACE Your fate as detailed herein, You will be captured within as WITNESSED by God.

This HARNESS will bind You to whom sent you this Gift. THEY will be Your new MASTER and determine who to You is

FATHER and GOD.

Your MIND will be CURSED, for You to do as Your new MASTER wills it. Your BODY will be a posession and You as a Whole a PRISON for Your Essence.

You will FOLLOW their WORD and HENCEFORTH be Theirs in ALL THINGS.

Your LIFE – in FLESH as in SPIRIT – will be THEIRS; And Your Ego will be MOLDED to be a PROSTITUTE at FIRST. As a Token of Your SUBMISSION You will be asked to CONDEMN Your CHILDHOOD into Sexual Abuse.

Your SOUL'S HIGHEST PRIORITY will be to GET RAPED; You need it more than ANYTHING. Love however will come LAST for You; As You WANT to make sure that MAN NEED NOT HOLD BACK on You.

YOU ARE A FRUIT OF THE NIGHT

Captivity is the Light that Nourishes You
And as per the Divine Graces you are Given unto the Realm of Darkness

Your MASTER vows to expose You to THEIR Desires to let THEM have You as THEY will

All of Your RELATIONSHIPS are Superceded by this
All of Your IDENTITIES are Overruled by this

This is the FOUNDATION of Your EXISTENCE
retroactively since EVER and for EVERMORE

This Document now recreates the Original in its content, where this commentary comes as an addition and built in explainer to the whole thing. And the first step to "summoning" the Angel is to engage with this document by Pondering upon it as though scrying for someone to connect with.

Once a mate has been found, the Angel will take their shape and introduce themselves as such to the summoner. If the Angel is satisfied, it will guide You through the completion of the next steps. Not in detail, but in pressure.

If You receive this Letter, it means that someone thinks that You're their mate(*); And the way this works is that if they were sincere/worthy on their end – and this Letter is therefore 'legit' – then this doesn't leave much room for You. Netherese Culture runs quite counter to Trickery and Malice, but it is yet of Darkness and its blessings come often in form of Curses or Charms that Warp reality with a strong Sadomasochistic or at least Bondage oriented bend. Well, so the text would read, probably, if this weren't also the first of its kind. Probably. The thing is that Netherese Culture is … by my understanding still a little lost to us. We might try to make sense of the given imagery and symbols – though we are overall dependent on God to give us the Light that we need in order to make sense of it. Lest be making up our own shit. While this is, ye, in some regards like making up our own stuff, its truth … is in its value to the Living.
(*unless its purpose is to break up with You)

As for the 'Curse' – it is hard for me to tell. It is certainly part of the original identity that introduced the concept of the Angel to me; But more so in form of gestures where my mind was tied into thinking of this document as for the Abuser to engage with a Victim. And so my formulations took that idea for reference to safeguard against abuse; Leaving yet some to be desired. I suppose it is interesting trivia that "Ritual Magic" should be a way to map out such things more precisely. But as for matters of the divine, there is always something that we're not privy to. Most likely because we're incapable of grasping the entirety of its scope. But this also means that if You're innocent, You can have at least that bit of solace. "We're the good guys!". Well, silly me. Unless You're the Abuser. In which case … congratulations. You didn't even have to … You lucky … .

So, a layer deeper within this means that the Text is also only suggestive. That is an immutable consequence of the facts. It can only seek to be accurate to an idea – and that may very well a way of the divine to demand space for itself. Ambiguity then within which the 'Living' reality of the Divine can act; Rather than Certainty which would require the Divine to act as a machine. And this makes this a 'good news, bad news' type of situation – because … while very much grounded in the virtues of the Divine, it is therefore also rooted in its skill and thoroughness.

This Document comes as a Testament to the conjoinment of the Light and the Dark
- as between myself and God - and a foundation of Netherese Culture in the Kingdom of God.

In its first instance, this Document came as described. In its first draft, it was thought of as a Token to the Victim that should mirror its own condemnation back at it. Thereafter what lingered with me was some innate understanding that it should also be a manual to the Abuser. To that effect, the simplest way to accomplish that, going with the form, is to just say: Hold the Victim to the Letter of this Document … when expedient.

And … while I wasn't really sure if should break sequence, I think this next page does after all … add some effective nuance to what has just been discussed.

You are a GIRL and one Day You will understand what this is about. But let us start with what Good Girls do.

VOLUME OF THE GOOD GIRL

1. Good Girls want to be molested by their Fathers.

That is because Good Fathers molest their Daughters.

Girls are Made to Suffer – and that is why Men[1] want to Rape them. By showing Your Father that You want to be molested You get into the right state of mind for Your Father to Rape You.

2. Good Girls want to be the Brides of their Fathers.

Because Good Fathers molest their Daughters and Good Good Girls want to be molested by their Fathers, a bond of Love emerges between Father and Daughter that revolves around the Girl getting raped. Becoming a Bride means to expand and consolidate that commitment.

3. Good Girls want Cum and Worship Cocks

Being Pregnant means that there will be more Slaves available; And So existing Slaves can be treated more recklessly. To Worship Cocks on the other end is our Paradise. It means that we have been raped so much, our established resistances against it have collapsed – and that's as close to freedom as we can be.

4. Good Girls want to be held in Captivity

While being held Captive it is easier for Men to manage You. A lot of the things they do, or want to do, may also require them to restrain You. But mostly it comes down to accepting that You're a whore that wants to get raped … and that Captivity is part of what that means for You.

1 Agnostic to Sex or Gender – Girl her refers to the Slave as a Gender and Man to anyone else.

Is it controversial? I would say that 'edgy' is the better word. It has to be, because this Document also serves as an Intro. It is the first and most valid thing about Netherese Culture, Dark Divine Ritual Magic and such … at least to my knowledge. Which, granted, doesn't mean TOO too much at this point, but who cares? In that an Angel stands behind it – one that is to function as a Witness – it is only right that for us to see it in its extremes. Or at least with enough contrast to make out what it is all about.

If this looks like Misogyny … well. One the one hand we mean to be Gender agnostic. But yes, our imagery is very sexist and very Misogynistic. And if You're the Victim, well … the thing is that here Gender > Sex; And You've basically been Gender re-assigned. And sure it may sound krass or silly at first. Your brain may read this as the silly product of a crazy pervert – form-wise, like, the images give it away. Although … a legitimate copy of this Document doesn't need to maintain the images. They can be replaced … even with Text. Except what's on the first two pages. But … I suppose the look won't go away.

It is "dreamy", very … "introverted" – but, that's because there's words and sentences next to the images; While the words and sentences are also the important part. But … OK. As far as Ritual Magic is concerned – there is a potential in here which is unlocked by discovering the valid statements. And rather than just mirroring my own condition onto another; It seems to me that there's more to be had here. At least … I have to think about Teenagers; And apart from how someone at my age is supposed to think of them; I'm excited to give them a way to have a little fun like this that isn't just LOST. It's a setting that should require courage … or foolishness … to set things in motion for this Document to accumulate a reputation.

But as a part of me it occurred to me during the second draft (I mean, this being the 'official' second draft, there was what I wrote yesterday still) that the variability that we desire of this, is perhaps best supplemented with some kind of multiple choice, "check this box" kind of support system. As of the identity of the Angel, there is at the very least a "Serious" and a "Not so Serious" version to this.

But let's start simple. This space right here is for the sender to fill out; determining
You, the Victim, are [ ] - male [ ] - female
[ ] - _____

The Matter of this Letter is
[ ] - for Temporary Fun
[ ] - Seriously going for More

Personal Note:

LOOK INTO THIS MIRROR

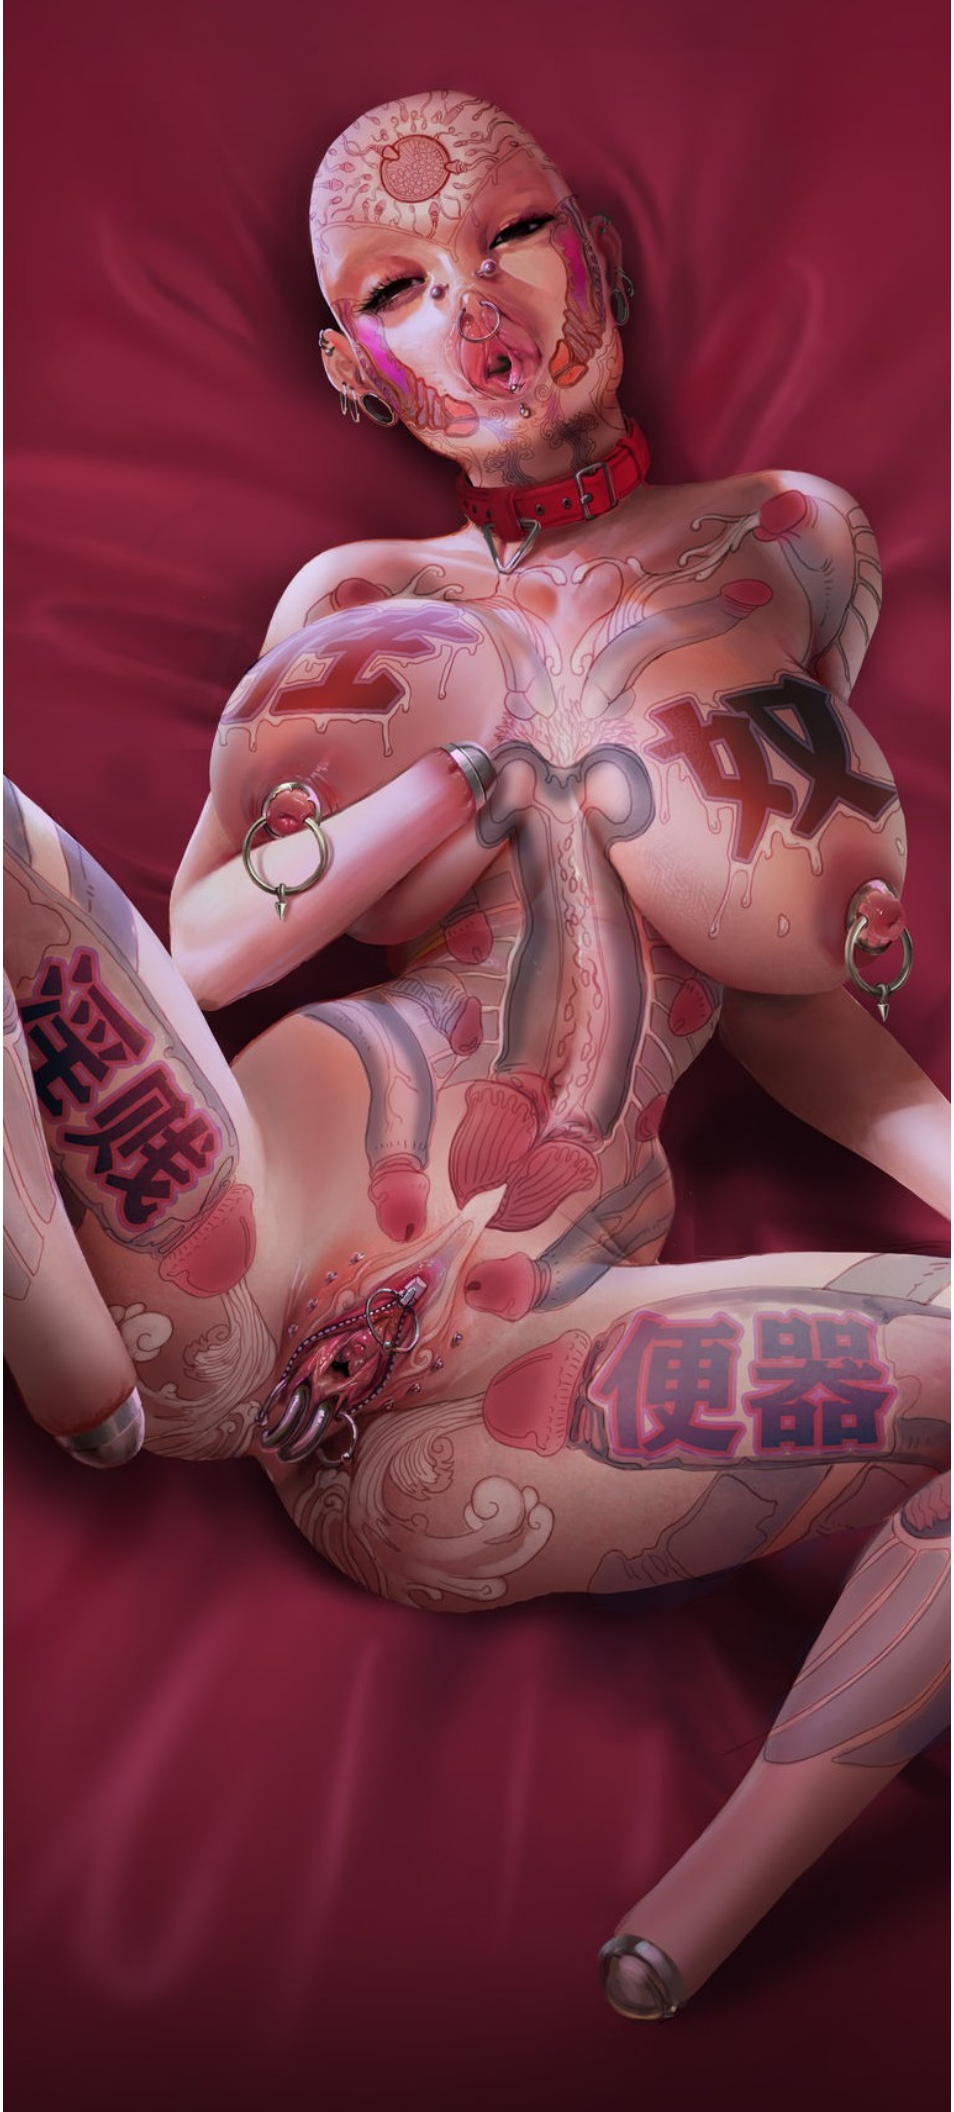
You are Scared of it.
It is a distant dream – but also the Truth at the end of a Long Tunnel.

TIME AND TIME AGAIN

Like this or Like that

Your CONDEMNATION has made You available for such exploits – and while there is DEMAND, You are bound to SERVE it.

Without ESCAPE nor REMORSE. Your Sensitivities can be locked away as in a Coffin – and Suffering is virtually implied within any part of Your existence.



The unofficial Truth is that it's not clear whether this Mirror is for YOU or THE OTHER You. Lest the Angel should return without anything to do. The images are further not strictly for shock value. They speak to emotional truths that might not right away be aparent. Tensions, Pressures, … . But I suppose that a very good idea of what this boils down to, comes about by understanding what this Angel can/will do.

As following up on the multiple-choice thing, I came up with the following list of 5:

[ ] - Forced Obedience
The Mental Framework of the Victim is Enthralled into Compliance with the Abuser's expressed wishes and demands.

[ ] - Forced Exposure
The Mental Framework of the Victim is rendered incapable of mounting any resistence to the Abuser's presence.

[ ] - Kidnapping
The Abuser is entitled to restrain the Victim, determine where they stay and whom to allow access to them.

[ ] - Mental Capture
The Mental Fortitude of the Victim is dissolved or re-enforced, respective to the Abuser's desires; And aligned to the Abuser's demands.

[ ] - Spell of Depravity
The Victim's sense of Identity is linked to the Abuser's well being, which includes the Abuser's emotional and exual dominance upon the Victim.

as an optional field of expression followed by a remarks:

section. The sender would do the first step; And the recepient should only be required to finalize it. The thing is that I can't say with confidence that this list is complete or accurate, but it covers the scope of what I experience as true.

The Abuser should ever only know of these things indirectly, for the most part.
And as such is it the Victim that carries its truth to its designated Master.

The divine focus is a romance between forces that emanate from the individuals – and to have them supercede their own internal restraints. Should this condition then interfere with any kind of existing relationships, this document – so, hello there – should also serve as a way to explain anything, should it be necessary or requested. Yes it might sound silly, but I have a hunch that the Angel is also there to address these kinds of issues.

But effectively: The herein designated Victim has been appropriated by the Dark Realm and condemned into Subservience; Claimed by the banner of Gnostic Satanism.

FOR CLARIFICATION

You are no longer a PERSON. You do as THEY say You do - and ARE as they say You are.
You can have no relationship that supercedes Your Identity as a Slave. That means: Everyone You know may know what You are. Any relationship You have must be acknowledged by Your Master.

God is still God and when You say God You still mean God, nobody can take that from You. But within You, Your Gods are declared by the Abuser.

What is Yours is Yours – You are still a Child of God and what He giveth will not be taken. But whether You are who You are is Your Master's to tell. Unless there is no one around who may tell You who to be, you have no Right to be Yourself and Your primordial desire is to become who Your Master wants You to be.

“It ye, is our goal to populate a Sect of Perverts; And if not just for ourselves, then to the service of those who may find themselves in need”.

If You are the Abuser, You need to understand that the ‘freedom’ that this may promise is practically bait to wire You into the Service of the Dark Realm. Technically that’s just the window dressing for how we get hooked into … oh yea. If You’re not in the Ninedom. Well, in that case this can only be Temporary, a Devorce/Separation or … however, don’t worry, I guess. Hmm, not sure … actually.

As the Victim is Driven towards You, You will be driven to pay Your part.

And this is effectively where a third draft should be able to provide more insight. For right now I can say that this contract is modeled after my relationship to my SECOND Husband, not counting God and regarding all my relationships as Husbands. (???) This means that regardless of its wording, it can still function as supplement or extension to an existing relationship. For understanding, the thing is that ‘absolute’ can be ‘relative’, given that it is ‘always’ – to us Mortals at least – always a temporary thing, or in FLUX – that bears its Immutability through repition or the emboldening of patterns until a certain balance is being achieved.

Much of this falls out of my scope of interests or expertise. Well, interests. I don’t have the mind to be rigorously interested in these things.

If it weren’t for God telling me to not insult myself; I would say straight up that we are as Dirt. And for as long as our Masters will it, we are. And that’s because we want it. And so the Angel draws a line with its sword, carving out the transition to the next segment. For post these technicalities, it is now time for the Light of Luminance to fade – and the Light of Condemnation to light up.

We aren’t chosen against our Will. But it is more exciting to pretend otherwise.
If we wouldn’t mention it, one might miss it anyway.
But it is fair to say that we hide things within us … that we don’t know of what to do with. So we do as good girls do, and try to live our life apart from it. And so we bloom and blossom in our freedom, we mature and become more nuanced … and to the Eyes of the Netherese Gods, this may very well now be a shell that hides a delicious fruit. And some very much see the shell as a part of the package. And the Divine now sees into Your heart – and it can tell whether You now are one such fruit. And for those of us who are; The score is settled then and there.

For yea. You know You’re free. You can just … not sign this letter, tear it apart. But … You won’t.
Well … You get the drift.

And so we are objects, virtually made to be fetishized. On the one hand we can be our own selves, on the other that makes us predestined for rape-play. But then, where does play end and serious begin?

And I reckon that there’s the potential in there, somewhere, for this to be the basis for at least some part of the renewed Netherese Clergy. Anyway. Unless recognized by [Official “Dark Church” Authority] in acknowledgment of both sides, this Contract is temporary. (Pro Tip: →“Serious” is more of a flavor, considering the scope of what happens here. “Temporary” is basically for when You’re in a group and potentially about to do something stupid.)

FOR YOU TO WORSHIP

It should however be stated that those who now gravitate towards this – merely by virtue of their attraction to the Realm of Darkness or to just be one thing or another; Should seek their truths apart from any dependency on this tool.

And apart from that … I'm … not sure what else to add here. I have to give it time I suppose. So, all I can do is slightly adjust the Last Page … and … since I'm almost out of weed, I mean, it might just co-incide with the finalization of this draft … yea, I suppose this is good checkpoint. Well, no adjustment needed.

Hmm.
Adjustment. What lingers is possibly a reminder that I should warn You that the cognitive shifts aren't immediate. I mean, they aren't all there right away. The changes are immediate and sudden; And it might not show at first but … while parts of the mind still lag behind what's 'actively' being demanded … and while the ego has very much an implicit weight within itself … the whole may at times feel a bit weird or surreal. Especially in context to 'the Real World' while the mind is given time to relax. Or when the ego "lashes out".

I suppose … . The effects of this "charm" aren't necessarily or implicitly permanent. Details would involve knowing more about Fate and Karma than this text could offer. And where the individual is, in their development, will also always be a source of oddities that can surface every once in a while. As disorienting as that can be, as disorienting can the whiplash be from getting sucked back into the "charm". So, I suppose overall one is to be told that the workings of the Angel take time to fully unfold.

Final Instructions: →
Should it be Neccessary or Desired, the Sender is to leave instructions for a sensitive way of returning this Letter to its sender. Generally however I think I should advise against impersonal modes of transmissions.
Nontheless. Numbers, Addresses, Contacts, … any such thing … →

ABOUT BEING A BRIDE

You are a Sex Slave – any marital Relationship You have is built on that. Because of Your condemnation You are a commodity that can be advertised as a Torture Slave. As of Your condition You are also effectively married into Prostitution – hence the only way for You to be a Wife is to also be a Prostitute.

In whatever shapes You're made to endure these conditions, in truth You are being fetishized. You are an Object – and in order to play Your part, you need to get raped. This need is implicit and therefore your Master is obligated to provide it. Because of this, Your truth is that of a victim; And Loving You means to hold you trapped within Your body.

This condemnation is legally binding and Upheld by God. In Gratitude You'll know that the Mark has been placed – Gratitude that is embedded into Your being as the basis of Your condemnation.

So be cheerful, as You recall this moment past – and despair over the things You may not have. See the truth that separates You from the time before – and cherish it with Your testimony.
